Douglas . . . The Alaska Department of Fish and Game (department) announced today that the commercial golden king crab fishery in the Lower Chatham Strait Area will close at 12:00 noon Monday, May 21, 2012.

Based on an analysis of effort levels and harvest projections, the harvest as of the closure date is expected to reach the 25,000-pound GHL for the Lower Chatham Strait Area. The department will continue to monitor golden king crab harvest levels in the remaining three open areas. Permit holders are reminded that call-in requirements remain in effect for all current registrants.
